A FULL WEEK OF FASHION

With innovative catwalks, visionary designers and a luxurious atmosphere, a full week of Fashion was held in SALT LAKE CITY for the first time with Utah World Fashion Week last August 2024.

AUGUST 2024 AND 2025

5 continuous days of fashion events, catwalks and meet and greets is positioned as a solid platform for creatives, businessmen, entrepreneurs, influencers and fashion lovers looking to live an unforgettable experience.

THE MISSION OF UWFW

Utahworldfashionweek.com

Is an unprecedented platform that aims to become the largest fashion event in the state of Utah.
For one full week, UWFW will present high-profile fashion shows and events, attracting designers, guests, models and artists from other states and fostering the growth of the Fashion Industry.

The mission of this UWFW is to increase employment opportunities for fashion designers and industry professionals in Utah. Through UWFW, we seek to create a platform that not only showcases talent, but also acts as a springboard for future opportunities. Our goal is to generate an ecosystem where creativity and skill translate into meaningful employment.

Utah World Fashion Week (UWFW) is not simply an annual event; it is a movement dedicated to transforming the fashion industry in Utah in meaningful and sustainable ways. Beyond being just a fashion week, UWFW aspires to be the catalyst that drives employment, opportunity, and creativity in the state.

MARYLIN SANTANA

I'm Marilyn Santana, the designer and creator behind Nikma Collection. Originally from Ecuador, I bring over 16 years of experience in the world of fashion and handmade design. After many years in New York, I now call Utah home. A place where creativity, family, and opportunity have beautifully come together.

Throughout my journey, I've been blessed with the unwavering love and support of my family, my husband Óscar Veliz, my daughters Nicole and Madelyn Veliz Santana, my sister Karol Santana, my son-in-law Tyler Rhoton, and my cherished grandchildren Myles and Aliyah. They are my inspiration and my greatest motivation. It is an incredible honor to have been given the opportunity by the Utah World Fashion Week team to present my collection on the runway. I'm deeply thankful for their belief in my work and for the chance to share my designs alongside so many talented creators. I have also had the joy of participating in Zion Fashion Week and various other fashion runways in Utah and New York, each experience shaping and inspiring my artistic journey.

You can find my work and follow my creative journey on Instagram and Facebook at @MarilynSantana and @NikmaCollectionUS, or visit my Etsy shop, Nikma Collection US, to explore my handmade designs.

Every piece I create is handmade with soul. From crochet handbags and children's clothing, to swimwear and jewelry crafted from resin, polymer clay, crystals, and wire. My most recent collection, Hecho Alma ("Made with Soul"), has been warmly received and represents the heart and spirit of my brand. I'm deeply grateful to everyone who has recognized my craft and opened doors along the way.
